CEA Region I Newsletter

Fall 2015

From the Director...

On behalf of the Region I Executive Board, greetings! As we start into the fall season, I think of how all the colors of the change make up the great pictures and scenes. Like the multiple colors of the fall season, we as educators in corrections make up many different parts of the success of our students. So take some time to reflect that we do make a difference in the lives of your students. After all Corrections Education is a key towards successful transition.

In addition, please look out for information regarding the upcoming CEA Region I Conference to be held at the Great Escape Lodge & Water Park in Queensbury, NY, on June 1-3, 2016. Plan on attending and hopefully we'll see you there.

Sincerely,

Ron Bargiel, Director,

CEA, Region I
